

Sinclair Broadcasting should NOT be permitted to show the anti-Kerry film "Stolen Honor" using government-sponsored free airwaves. This completely flies in the face of the intent of a "free press" outlined in the First Amendment. Sinclair is completely partisan and has much to gain from the defeat of Senator Kerry as the corporation continues to grow its media empire. Our forefathers determined that a free press was essential for protecting our democracy, not controlling it.